• “I have learned that just because families live in a nation as advanced and rich as ours that they may not receive the minimum amount of food to stay healthy.”
• “Before taking this class, I had no idea that so many children were starving, not eating breakfast, lunch or dinner. I knew children and people were starving somewhere in the country but I did not know that there were so many of them starving, let alone in Ohio.”
• “Before EDT 110 I thought of hunger as a problem that existed in big cities with adults who did not work and chose not to provide for themselves…I also found that food insecurity is a problem where I live and can majorly change how a child does in life.”
• “I no longer believe that hunger and food insecurity is due to laziness. After seeing the process people have to go through to get food stamps, I understand why people cannot do it.”
• “I was surprised at how many children go hungry every day. Volunteering for Children’s Hunger Alliance helped me realize just how many parents are not able to feed their children three nutritious meals every day.”
• “When I first came into class, I had never thought about there being hungry children in Ohio. When I would turn on the TV and see children in Africa and other Third World Countries I had a hard time connecting to them.”
• “I thought everyone can reach everything on the web. Before this class, I did most of my research on the open web, but the knowledge about the libraries research methods, are a much better, more trustworthy way of getting the information I need in life.”
• “Never did I think that obesity and hunger would be linked but now I know it is.”
