GLOBALIZATION AND MULTINATIONAL INVESTMENTS: THE ROLE OF SOVEREIGN FUNDS

Let’s say that your sample topic is on global public policy towards sovereign funds. The search phrase you use might look something like this: PUBLIC POLIC* AND SOVEREIGN FUND*. Note: The * is to find variations of a term. FUND* would find words such as FUND, FUNDS, FUNDING.

FINDING ARTICLES IN ANY SCHOLARLY, MAGAZINE OR NEWSPAPER PUBLICATION

Business Source Complete
Watch this demonstration video

Factiva
Watch this demonstration video

FINDING ARTICLES IN RECOMMENDED SPECIFIC PUBLICATIONS

When you search in specific publications, it’s a good idea to keep your searches broad. So you could search for just SOVEREIGN FUND*.

Business Source Complete
Watch this demonstration video (only one publication can be searched at any one time)

Factiva
Watch this demonstration video (shows how to search multiple publications)

FINDING BOOKS

WSU Catalog
Watch this demonstration video

CITING YOUR SOURCES

Consult How To Cite guide.

INTEGRATING SOURCES INTO YOUR PAPER

Watch Integrating Your Sources video.

Read Synthesizing Research (by the University Writing Center).

Need more writing help? Contact the University Writing Center.

PRESENTATION PRACTICE ROOM IN THE LIBRARY
Giving an in-class presentation may be a required component in this course. If you’re a business major, you will find that in-class presentations (team or individual) will be a component in many business courses.

Using the Dunbar Library Presentation Practice Room, you (and your team members) can practice your presentation before you actually do it before your professor and fellow students. There is also a camera available in the room for you to videotape your presentation.

You need to reserve the room ahead of time. Use this online reservation system to book your room. Rooms may be booked for 2-hour blocks. For more information, please visit Reserving The Room.

Carol Fang / September 2018